Still do the things you love

Social connection is integral to maintaining health and wellbeing, and is associated with improved quality of life, increased self-esteem and increased levels of happiness. Our home visiting service provides an opportunity to improve your social connections through companionship and friendship, while doing things that you love in the comfort of your own home.

Connection

Our fantastic community volunteers will be there to support you with social connection.

Regular visits

Volunteers visit at least once a fortnight to build friendships.

Here for you

We aim to match you with a volunteer who has similar interests or hobbies.

Cost

Eligible clients can access free visits through the Aged Care Volunteer Visitors Scheme or subsidised visits through the Commonwealth Home Support Programme. Funded by the Australian Government
